

DAMn° productivity

DAMn° continues in the supersize spirit with this issue's selection of products & places that have made the open-ended trip from imagination to realisation. Shows and sights in London, New York, Milan and Berlin provide some of the inspirational food for thought and feeling, illustrating that the big picture and the devil of detail are both still hard at work.

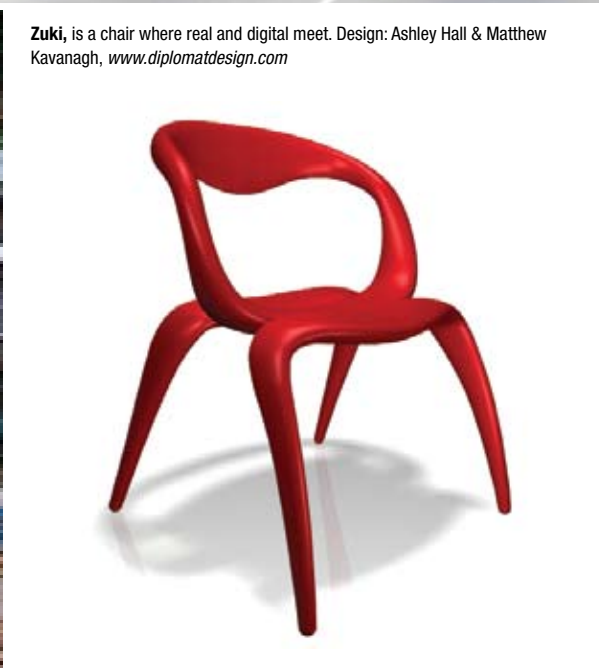

Product selection by Jessica De Baere and Siegrid Demyttenaere

Caracas, Venezuela, photo by Anneke Bokern

Freelander, is a site-specific growing environment utilising existing architectural structures. Outside, rainwater is collected and stored in a tank from the drainage. Inside, by the window, plants can safely grow and are automatically watered by a gravity fed system from the tank outside. Design: Jochem Faudet, www.jochemfaudet.com

Zuki, is a chair where real and digital meet. Design: Ashley Hall & Matthew Kavanagh, www.diplomatdesign.com

Tamed, design by Anna Rikkinen & Nelli Tanner, nelly.tanner@elisaneet.fi; annarikkinen@hotmail.com

Hotel Experimenta by Jan Konings for Urban Play, ExperimentaDesign Amsterdam 2008

PH/08, bookcase and ceramics; exhibition at Surplus Interieur, Ghent (B) Design: Hans De Pelsmacker (bookcase) & Benoît Van Innis (ceramics), www.hansdepelsmacker.be, www.benoit-artist.com

Fabricated lampshades, design: David Sutton, www.davidsutton.co.uk

Tectonic, side tables Design: Bonaldo, www.bonaldo.it

Guéridon kyoto, design: François Champsaur, www.aksent-gent.be

The highest popping toaster in the world, CO2 Gas Powered. Design: Freddie Yauner, www.freddieyauner.co.uk

Lines, design: Peter Maly, www.ligne-roset.com

Tablecloth, a flat sheet of fabric is shaped by hand in such a way that its creases become the structure of an object when stiffened. Design: Henny Van Nistelrooy, www.hennyvannistelrooy.com

Folding stool, borrows the parallel action mechanism from task lighting and the dimensions from a bicycle seat Design: Luka Stepan, www.lukastepan.com

OnOff, a bed that is easy to tip over and gives the ability to store large items such as a sunlamp. Design: Giulio Manzoni, www.campeggisl.it